Julie Starr (Author of The Coaching Manual)

Coaching is big business, but we all do it - whether it is managing someone in the workplace, a formal training situation or listening to a friend's troubles over a beer. In its simplest form, coaching is just a conversation between two people, with one benefiting from the exchange. The Coaching ManualBy Julie Starr Publisher: [...]

Book Review - The Coaching Manual by Julie Starr | Blog ...

If Prosperous Coach (another terrific book about coaching as connecting with one person at a time) is more of a motivational talk than this one is a down-to-earth manual on the craft of coaching. I loved the attitude in the book - Ms. Starr clearly cares a great deal both about novice coaches and the profession in general - and the exercises, especially for developing deep listening.

The Coaching Manual : Julie Starr : 9781292084978

Julie Starr offers this view: Put simply, coaching is a conversation, or series of conversations, that one person has with another. The person who is the coach intends to produce a conversation that will benefit the other person (the coachee) in a way that relates to the coachee's learning and progress. (Starr, 2011)
