Regardless, Star Trek: Picard is the long-awaited follow-up to Star Trek: Nemesis. The Destruction Of Romulus In J.J. Abrams' Star Trek (2009) The circumstances which led to Picard leaving Starfleet are tied to the destruction of the planet Romulus, which was a pivotal event in J.J. Abrams' Star Trek (2009) that set his rebooted Kelvin timeline in motion.

Star Trek: Nemesis - Wikipedia

Star Trek: Nemesis is a good movie with a pretty decent storyline that kind of gets to the point too quickly but is fun and action packed,unlike Insurrection,that is very slow paced,and I thought Nemesis was much better.The cast are still as strong as ever,just like every other Star Trek,but I found it disappointing for the fact that it was the Next Generation crew's final adventure,it didn't really go out with a pleasing ending like the Undiscovered Country did with the original crew,and it ...
