A standard possession order is defined by the Texas Family Code Section 153.252 and is intended to protect the best interest of the children. For parents who live within 100 miles of each other, the secondary parent will get the child every Thursday during the school year from 6 to 8 pm; every 1st, 3rd, and 5th weekend of a month from Friday to Sunday; 30 days during the summer; and every ...

~~What is a Standard Visitation Schedule in 2020?~~

Texas uses the terms "possession" and "access" instead of "physical custody" and "visitation," respectively. A parent has possession of a child when the child is under his or her care. Access is a broader term that can refer to any communication a parent has with a child, as well as presence at the child's activities.
