An Introduction to the Biological Foundations of Morality. According to Haidt, understanding politics and religion must begin with an understanding of the human moral sense. As a first step in this direction Haidt provides the following definition of moral systems: "moral systems are interlocking sets of values, virtues, norms, practices,...

The Righteous Mind Quotes by Jonathan Haidt

The Righteous Mind by Jonathan Haidt - review. Drawing on everything from advertising to anthropology, he argues that liberals are driven by a morality based on compassion, the desire to fight oppression and, to some degree, fairness. Conservatives have a broader set of six "moral tastes", sharing such concerns but balanced by the binding foundations of loyalty, authority and sanctity.
